Board Reports

Elders – The Elders met last Tuesday January 5th and discussed having 2 Lenten Services. The first service will be Ash Wednesday and the seconded March 10th. The congregation agreed.

Trustee – We have 2 bids so far for the new storage building. One written from Joe Bornaman for $27,000 the seconded one is a verbal bid Ellen Jones is handling, we are still accepting bids.

Education – A Sunday School Director is still needed. The Sunday School account that was at Citizen State Bank was closed and money given to Ilene Robson (treasurer) to put in the church account.

Finance – N/A

Evangelism – Beryl will be sending notes out again inviting people back to church; also at Euchre she invites people to see our church and to attend a service.

Fellowship – A sign up sheet is on the bulletin board for the pot luck to follow the service of David Britten January 31. Mr. Britten was invited to stay with Sue and Allyn Gerds.

Other

Pastor's Report – The schedule of ministers is on the bulletin board.

Old Business –

New Business – A Daisy Girl Scout troop asked about the possibility of using our fellowship hall for their meetings. Marv Kettel moved to say no for now, seconded by Mary Runstadle. Ellen Jones would like to look into our insurance to see what is covered and what is not covered.

We need to revise our rules and regulations for use of our fellowship hall. Kevin Labuhn asked for a committee to go over and revise the rules, Penny Harper, Gail Watt, Marie Brockmiller and Debbie Labuhn volunteered.

A Historical marker for our church was brought up by Kevin Labuhn and he asked Debra Fletcher if she could write the grant for it, she said she would.

Adjourn – Mary Runstadle moved to adjourn seconded by Gail Watt at 11:36am.
